

So how do we believe Osama bin Laden when this happens?

Description

I vote to not trust Osma bin Laden's promise to not attack those who vote the way he wants. The below link takes you to a post regarding a planned attack on a "football" (soccer to us ~Americans) stadium in Madrid. I thought the al-Queda had subdued the Spanish with the train station bombing, but it seems like they are just bent on killing more and saying "JUST KIDDING!" to the people of Spain, after they voted the "right" one in and the troops were withdrawn. Thank God the Spanish law enforcement and judiciary is still hard at work preventing murder for some unholy reason.
