Mo's™ better way to skydive "without the plane"

Wind tunnels keep getting better and better. I was able to get into the one at Ft. Bragg years ago by special invite and to be coached by the Golden Knights (including one of President Bush's (41) jumpmasters. Video is on a VHS tape around here somewhere. Yea, it was a while ago.

Go and Check out the Paraclete XP site and also watch this video at Military.com.

Trivia: Glenn Bangs was the the commander of the first 82nd Airborne unit to land in Saudi for the very start of Desert Shield (and was the other jumpmaster for President Bush).
