

Conviction, Courage and Devotion – 64 Years Ago

Description

On this day in 1945, on the island of Okinawa, a young man saved his comrades on the battlefield – and had never carried a weapon.

Quite a man, quite a story. His personal belief drove him and carried him through his life.
