Wrong place, wrong timeâ€¦.

Description

This home grown movie is a seemingly real story of someone who missed the warning signsâ€¦

Apparently it came out a few years ago, but it should make you smile, if not laugh out loud. I guess two guys laboriously filmed sections of I-405, when they saw they were empty, then pieced them together to make it appear as though no one was on one side of that Interstate (short the driver of the Jeep). The plot is compeling, the acting fantastic, the story, well, maybe plausible, but if you need a chuckle, click up thereâ€¦.(and itâ€™s not longâ€¦)
