Need a laugh?

Description

Weâ€™re Not Sorry is a counter to some very strange people with some belief that they have the permission of the American public to make an apology for those of us who prefer life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness over â€œReligiticsâ€• (thatâ€™s my original word, but feel free to use it, unless itâ€™s mirror, â€œPoligionâ€• is more suitable (my word, too)), a return to the past, mass cults of personality (pass the Mohammed-Aid, please), and the general subsugation of any normal human interactions. These people are located at this site.
