When you quit referring to us as the â€œGreat Satanâ€•â€¦

Description

It seems the Council for American-Islamic Relations (CAIR) is upset that the terrorists in the new season of the Fox suspense show â€œ24â€• are being stereotyped as Islamic. For the short notes on this, I found the article on Little Green Footballs in this post.

Somehow, and correct me if Iâ€™m wrong (particulaly in the post Bay of Bengal tsunami disaster days), but havenâ€™t we regularly seen the American Flag burned by Palestians, Iraqis, Egyptian, Afgani, etc, etc, etc Muslims in the news over the last few years? I may have been hallucinating, but I also recall the burning of manequins labled George Bush by the same fervent crowds, while they shot rifles and pistols in the air, all of this while proclaiming Americans are completely evil. Toss in the lies about planting nuclear weapons in the sea floor to cause tidal waves, purposely planning 9/11, and a plethora of other completely out to lunch accusations with no foundation in fact by the same crowdsâ€¦.

default watermark

I think we most certainly can remove references to Islamic terrorists, when some other group commits 51% of the terrorist attacks against Americans, and also when Al Jazerra stops â€œstereotypingâ€• Americans as oppressors and imperialists.

Notice CAIR doesnâ€™t say who should be the terrorsts, just they shouldnâ€™t be represented by those who are actually committing most every terrorist act in the world in the last few yearsâ€¦..

Category

1. Uncategorized

Date Created
January 17, 2005
Author