As Paris Burns and French Moral Cowardice

Description

On Little Green Footballs, once more the Muslims riot in the vicintiy of Paris. The Interior Minister is cluless, as is the French President.

I found a link to the situation I recall hearing about about a year ago, where French Foreign Legionaries gunned down civilians in Cote dâ€™Ivoire.

Anyhow, they can find someone to gun down in Africa, but somehow they canâ€™t figure out how to use the same rationale to do it in Paris. I guess they are afraid of the consequences when faced with an enemy with resolve.
