College Professor Calls for Assassination of the President

Description

I quote from the Constition of the United States:

Article 2, Clause 1: â€œThe President shall be Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, and of the Militia of the several States, when called into the actual Service of the United States;â€¦â€•

John Daly of Warren Community College sent an email to a student who was planning to have an Army Lt Colonel Scott Rutter speak on the campus about what was happening in Iraq. One line in it, this english professor said: â€œReal freedom will come when soldiers in Iraq turn their guns on their superiors.â€•

Am I misreading the Constition, or is this English professor advocating a military coup, through the vehicle of murder, which would include â€œsuperiors,â€• the most superior of which is the President of the United Sates.

I wonder if he felt that dogs barking at terror suspects being held in Abu Gharib prison was too extreme and considered torture? Seems like a case of situational ethics, all for his personal agenda.

If Iâ€™m not wrong, itâ€™s time for a vist to John Daly from the Secret Service, for he has communicated a death threat towards the President.

In the rest of the text, he commented on how US sanctions on Iraq (meaning UN sanctions in fact) killed thousands of Iraqi children.

> â€œâ€¦you can begin with the more than a million children who have died in Iraq from U.S.-imposed sanctions and war.â€•

Note to clueless John Daly: Good move, bucko. Lets suggest murder for murder. The only problem is that rudderless, increasingly irrelevant institution of the UN was in concert with the embargos, and also the leadership of the UN raked in the cash by the billions, while those children starved, watching the new palaces go in along the Tigris and Euphrates rivers. Stick to English, or brush up on your history. Would you consider condemin the rightful inflictors of the human pain, or are you just mad at George Bush for not wanting to fund NPR?

My suggestion to you: How about you pack your bags and find Osama bin Laden. Iâ€™m sure heâ€™s down with that Hammurabi law code deal from ancient times. Youâ€™ll feel right at home living about several thousand years in the past with the Islamic world domination group. Oh, and study up on how to pay your tribute to your new masters, just in case they give you that option when you convert to worship Allah. Just know, holding onto an atheistic position will get you called infidel, just like the rest of use.

Update: It seems the President of Warren Community College believes that John Daly is exercising his First Amendment rights with this harassment, and that Rebecca Beachâ€™s expose of this to the media is giving the school a bad name. At least heâ€™s right on the second part, but itâ€™s her right to use the Constitution as well. The link to the article above have the details of this response from the schoolâ€™s president.
