Coming Soon: â€œRopeyarn Sundayâ€• Sea Stories and Open Trackbacks!

Description

I think itâ€™s time to share my meager readership with others. Lord knows Iâ€™ve filched enough for my sitemeter through the graciousness of others in the blogosphere, most notably GreyHawk at Mudville Gazette. I still canâ€™t get a ping thru to his blog with WordPress, even with standalone pingersâ€¦.:(

The â€œeventâ€• will be weekly and appear Wednesday afternoons (when the sun is over the yardarm). Iâ€™ll make an attempt to post a short â€œsea storyâ€• and you will post links to your postings to that post!

This is in the vein of â€œFull Bore Fridayâ€• from CDR Salmander, â€œFlight Deck Fridayâ€• by SteelJaw Scribe, and others who have a special category of writings weekly (Hey, guysâ€¦.whatâ€™s with the friday thing? Run out of work to do?)

Check back after noon local (EDT) this Wednesday for the first oneâ€¦.

Ohâ€¦to place a trackback, copy the link to the post, then append â€œ/trackbackâ€• to the link in your trackback pinging tool of choice. They then show up as comments. Iâ€™ll dig about to see if there is a way to pull them up into the main post automagically via some WordPress plugin (and if you know howâ€¦please share the secret!).
