Sex and the Suicide Bomber

Description

Interesting article discussing the motivation behind those would would kill themselves and others for gainâ€¦

> I have always believed that the sick view of sexuality promoted by strict Islam is one of suicide bombingâ€™s prime motivators. Young males, living in Islamic societies where pre-marital sex with women is sometimes punishable by death, and raised by mothers who are treated like chattel, canâ€™t possibly have healthy outlooks on sexuality. So it is unsurprising that thereâ€™s no shortage of young Muslim males drawn to the notion that unlimited carnal delights can be had at the push of a button. In an ultimate perversion, the suicide bomberâ€“and those who fund and recruit them and prepare their missionsâ€“draw from an act of creation to create death.

Sexâ€¦yep, itâ€™s a pretty powerful motivator in the history of all sorts of species, not just man, but animals seem to be a bit more realistic about it.
