Valour-IT: The â€œNovember Surprise!â€•

Description

Today, In honor of the 231st Birthday, Iâ€™m posting the donation button for Team Marines.

We Navy guys have been hauling them all over the world to get to â€œthe office,â€• all the while as they are eating all the ice cream and ~~bitching~~ complaining that theyâ€™ve seen all the movies.

Once more, it looks like the Marines could use a lift to get to where they can then be successful, and here it is:

Warning to you Grunts: I have no ice cream, the weight room is the pay for gym down the street and where I live and sleep wonâ€™t rock you to sleep, but I can offer â€œsupportâ€• for your cause.
