jfkâ€™s Remarks to College Students

Description

Iâ€™m not going to pull up a bunch of links, for much of my post is commonly known information.

Premises:

Liberals donâ€™t like the military
Liberals think military members are too stupid to get a job â€œin the real worldâ€•
Liberals donâ€™t want the Military recruiting on college campuses
Military recruiting goals continue to be met (which drives liberals crazy)

My analysis:

jfk (for he is not worthy of large letters like the man of stature with those initials who preceded him) last week on a college campus was just out there, using a different tactic to knock back recruiting numbers.

I guess heâ€™s never head of â€œblowback.â€•

Iâ€™ve commented many times, the Democrats are chasing off the very people who would comprehend strategy and tacticsâ€¦but, hey, they wonâ€™t take my advice.

If you want some real recruiter gouge, check out Station Commando, especially this post! Itâ€™s a hoot!

BTW, SC got a hat tip from Chris Muir, the author of the comic strip â€œDay by Day,â€• for getting the â€œStuck in IraKâ€• picture.
