â€œShoot the Wolf Closest to the Sledâ€• â€“ Adm Hank Mustin

Description

Dear Speaker Pelosi;

â€œHammerinâ€™ Hankâ€• had a philosophy: Target the closest threat. Kill it any way your can, because your ability to have a future depends on it.

When you have â€œdanger close,â€• it serves the future little to peer beyond it and pontificate on how you have to make things better for then. If youâ€™re dead from the nearer danger, so what if youâ€™d like to make things perfect for your grandchildren and mine?

Sincerely,

A concerned citizen.

Why the open note to Pelsoi Galore? It seems she is going to make a push to fund the war on global warming.

I take issue with her intention stated here:

> â€œIt is important to our childrenâ€™s health and their global competitiveness to rid this nation of our dependence on foreign oil and Big Oil interests,â€• Pelosi told the news conference today. â€œTaking bold measures today to achieve energy independence within 10 years must be the highest priority for this Congress.â€•

Pragmatic question to Madame Speaker: What are we going to do next year when Iran embargoes oil exports to us?

Just wonderinâ€™â€¦.
