Description

â€œProud to be everything the Right Wing hatesâ€•

This was not technically a bumper sticker, but a rear window of and SUV (Aztek) sticker and it was about 6â€³x6â€³, black with small white lettering. Iâ€™m wondering, since I had to get within a 1/2 car length to make sure I had it right for the record, how proud this driver actually wasâ€¦:)

Same car, but one I can consider shaking his hand and buying him a cup of coffee for:

â€œTHINK â€“ Itâ€™s not illegal yet.â€•

We certainly could use some people who believe that right now, and actually start doing itâ€¦.
