> All,
>
> Itâ€™s my pleasure to invite you to a discussion of my book, â€œNo Higher Honor: Saving the USS Samuel B. Roberts in the Persian Gulfâ€• (Naval Institute Press, 2006, http://www.nohigherhonor.com) at 7 p.m. this Friday, Jan. 19, at the Borders Books in Springfield, Va (6701 Frontier Drive, Springfield, Va). The store is located near the Springfield Mall, just south of I-495.)
>
> The book (now in its second printing) tells the story of the USS Samuel B. Roberts, a small U.S. warship dispatched to the Persian Gulf in 1988. Well-led and well-trained, its crew shepherded oil tankers through the chaos of the Iran-Iraq War â€" until disaster struck. On 14 April, an Iranian mine ripped open the Robertsâ€™ engineroom, ignited fires on four decks, and plunged the ship into darkness. With seawater rising around their boots, the crew fought fire and flooding into the night. Four days later, the U.S. retaliated, sinking a half-dozen Iranian warships and boats in the biggest surface battle since World War II.
>
> The book has received good reviews; it has also inspired a History Channel documentary that is slated to air this fall.
>
> Hope to see you on Friday!

My book report is here.

Oh, yes, and Brad chipped in two copies for the Valour-IT Fund Raiser this past November. Just in case you wanted to support him, too.
