VALOUR-IT Site/Link Updated! Fix Your Links!

Description

The Valour-IT site has been updated and if you link there, please find some time (quickly) to update your blogrolls/sidebars/etcâ€¦

If you are unaware of what Iâ€™f talking about, itâ€™s a project to get laptops with voice activated software into the hands of our injured troops at the major medical facilities, so they can continue to keep in touch with family, friends and their units.

The link is now: http://soldiersangels.org/index.php?page=project-valour-it
