A Shipmate Reports from the Gathering of Eagles

Description

A shipmate from USS FIRST SHIP was one of the many veterans standing tall on Saturday, 3/17/2007 in Washington, DC.

He sent this memento. The picture was taken early Saturday morning at the Lincoln Memorial:

> The traitors couldnÃ¢â‚¬â„¢t have numbered greater than a thousand or so while the vets surely had mustered three or four times that. In addition to the usual suspects, Cindy Sheehan, Jane Fonda, Cynthia McKinney, Maxine Waters, etc, there was a decidedly younger crowd, appearing in dress and demeanor as I recall the Ã¢â‚¬Å“flower-childrenÃ¢â‚¬Â• of the late 60Ã¢â‚¬â„¢s. A few Ã¢â‚¬Å“braveÃ¢â‚¬Â• traitors ventured among us with their messages of peace and were met generally with disdain as indicated by the below clip from WJLA TVs (Wash DC) website.

> The Ã¢â‚¬Å“EaglesÃ¢â‚¬Â• arrived at 0600 and began milling about smartly. I snapped this photo with my cell phone as they unfurled one of the banners prior to any Ã¢â‚¬Å“traitorÃ¢â‚¬Â• arrivals. This was on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial. Fox news was the only network that accurately depicted our force strength at 3 to 4 times that of the moonbats.

Another bit of history from a Vetâ€¦
