On the hatchback: â€œAnother American for Peaceâ€•

Thatâ€™s good to know, but It got me thinking:

The Left accuses the Right of being arrogant, yet I believe the Left suffers from the same mental malady.

Why? Because â€œsloganismâ€• politics imply America has total control of all that happens, like we cause the enemy to attack us in subtle and not so subtle ways, so, ergo, we are also in charge of stopping their attacks with a word or two.

Then again, you could extend it to them wrapping their arms harder around the â€œThe US Set Up 9/11â€• conspiracies.

Yeah, right. 4.8% of the Worldâ€™s population controla EVRYTHING that happens. Sounds pretty arrogant to me.
