Well! I Guess That Settles That!

Description

My brain color? I thought gray, but thatâ€™s the science in meâ€¦

And thanks to another take a moment quiz on the net:

Your Brain is Orange

Of all the brain types, yours is the quickest.
You are usually thinking a mile a minute, and you could be thinking about anything at all.
Your thoughts are often scattered and random â€“ but theyâ€™re also a lot of fun!You tend to spend a lot of time thinking about esoteric subjects, the meaning of life, and pop culture.

What Color Is Your Brain?

Heh! It said â€œrandom.â€•

I like to think thatâ€™s me, but then it was only a few questionsâ€¦
