default watermark

Sgt. Rafael Peralta: Act of Honor â€“ History Channel Documentary 5/19/2007

Description

Heads up from Flag Gazer via email:

Sgt. Rafael Peralta: Act of Honor
This Saturday, May 19, 2007, at 6:00/7:00 p.m., Act of Honor about the hero Sgt. Rafael Peralta.

> The History Channelâ€™s summary:
>
> On November 15, 2004, Sgt. Rafael Peralta died while fighting to secure a key insurgent stronghold in Iraq. Peralta and fellow Marines were ambushed by guerillas who then lobbed a grenade at them. Already seriously wounded, Peralta shielded his companions by covering the explosive device with his body, saving their lives and sacrificing his own. Watch Peraltaâ€™s extraordinary journey from Tijuana, Mexico to San Diego to the streets of Iraq. Included are interviews with his widowed mother and three siblings in San Diego. I urge you to watch and learn about a true hero, a Marine, an American.

default watermark

For more information see my posts which include many comments by Sgt. Rafael Peraltaâ€™s family and friends:
Sgt. Rafael Peralta â€“ New Photos
HERO: Sgt. Rafael Peralta
[This is a reprint of my most recent blog post: Sgt. Rafael Peralta:
Act of Honor
*This email is a one time ever mailing to all of my Gmail contacts. If you donâ€™t know me, donâ€™t worry, you will never receive another message from me. I apologize for any inconvenience. Thank you.
Don Danz
http://www.DanzFamily.com

Category

1. History
2. Leadership
3. Marines
4. Military
5. Military History
6. Public Service
7. Scout Sniping
8. Supporting the Troops

Date Created
May 19, 2007
Author
admin