Entropy and Irony â€“ Part I

Description

I was rather amazed that even Tony Snow tapped danced around the arrest of the 6 Muslims today to say there hadnâ€™t been any noticeable links to terrorist groups in the story that hit the wires today.

I find it ironic, to say the least, that within moments of any significant violence in schools, a virtual choir of media and talking heads all trot out the connection to â€œviolent video games, like Dungeons and Dragons and Doom.â€•

Iâ€™d bet the shooters at Columbine and VT never met with John Carmack, but â€œweâ€• are happy to link them together.
