Guest Authors â€“ Watch for Them!

Description

I have set up two people as guest authors here:

- Rich Lowry, an author whoâ€™s books include â€œMarines in the Garden of Edenâ€•, and a Navy Veteran, an FTB with operational experience in the ballistic submarine force.
- AW1 Tim, a former air crewman from the light anti-submarine and maritime patrol communities, and a prolific commenter on a number of the MilBlogs. I shared a room with him at the MilBlogs Conference and his is a well read student of history and military things (and a veritable repostiory of many more â€œsea storiesâ€• to add to the internet record). He thinks heâ€™ll get his feet wet as a blogger here this weekend.

Fair warning (to check back more frequently) to you.
