Band of Bloggers â€“ Part IV

Description

Back from lunch and presentations. The best part was CPT Chuck Zeigenfuss (ValOUR-IT â€œpatient zeroâ€•) tell the story of waking up in the hospital in Germany and then the road to the first laptop used to help someone get back into life. It was a wonderful testimony to the work of Soldierâ€™s Angels and the people who made ValOUR-IT go.

History worth remembering. Too bad lunch wasnâ€™t videoedâ€¦:(
