â€œThe Free and the Braveâ€• by MilBlogger Greyhawk

Description

He said what? Hereâ€™s why:

> After effects of the Toby Keith concert: Wrote this country music song while driving around in my humvee. Maybe later Iâ€™ll work out the guitar part and record.

The result?

> The Free and the Brave
> [Greyhawk]
> Over in America, home of the free
> Land of unlimited opportunity
> People in the streets protest whatever they can
> While over in Iraq and Afghanistan
>
> The brave, far from home, are standing tall > toeing the line, so they can have it all
> Some like to complicate it but itâ€™s simple to me
> Theyâ€™re making noise, weâ€™re making history.

He already â€œwroteâ€• the words for one song, which a group, 3db Down, used the words from one of his posts of his for his prior trip to the sandbox (2005).

I think he may have a career planned for retirement!
