Entropy and Irony â€“ Part III

Description

More random thoughts:

Nancy Pelosi chides Hugo Chavez for shutting down RCTV, while speaks of implementing the â€œFairness ~~yeah, right!~~ Doctrineâ€• to force conservative (read opposition) voices off the airwaves.

John Edwards and Barak Obama want universal health care. Stick with me here: Wonâ€™t that make us live longer? Excuse me, but I think this flies in the face of the humanity caused â€œGlobal Warmingâ€• syndrome currently sweeping the nation. If we are making it worse, why do they want to make sure we stay around to pollute the atmosphere that the animals have to also breath from?

Speaking of that: How about those who decide not to have offspring, as they see just another â€œpolluting unitâ€• (â€œPUâ€• for short) being created andâ€¦.as we all know, itâ€™s a bad thingâ€¦.

So now the President hops on the â€œGlobal Warmingâ€• band wagon. Either heâ€™s trying to upstage those who set up the Kyoto Treaty, or heâ€™s maybe looking for cross-over Democratic votes? Iâ€™m confused.

John McCain says we need to let the illegal immigrants have their way, or they might riot in our streets, but we have to stand up tall against the Islamic terrorists. Iâ€™m even more confused now.

Not only do we have to do as John McCain implies, we need these workers here because we are lacking Americans to do the work. Yes, about 40M some, many of which would have been of age by now.

Europe had to let lots of low cost, immigrant labor in for the same reason (but they never knew years ago they were helping the environment by not having little Europeans) and look whatâ€™s happening now. It doesnâ€™t take even a homegrown experiment to see whatâ€™s coming in a few decades.

We decide to help install an anti-missile DEFENSE in eastern Europe, Russia gets upset. I guess the possibility of no longer being able to nuke your neighbors to the west has got a burr under their saddleâ€¦

A sitting President can lie to a Grand Jury while under oath and just be dis-barred and a White House staffer can make statements while not under oath during an investigation that arenâ€™t true and he goes to jail for 2.5 years.

Something I am not confused about is that I am â€œextra-curricular politics.â€•
