So Whereâ€™s MEGEN Now?

Description

Steeljaw Scribe is on â€œvacation.â€• He not only graciously took his family along, but MEGEN of ValOUR-IT fame is being taken on a leisurely ride around the north east of this great Nation.

Now, besides getting pics of MEGEN along the way, he left his blog in the hands of some rather â€œyouthfulâ€• writers, who are acting like teenagers left behind at home when Mom and Dad go out of town. You know, they ask all their surly friends over and begin defacing the place with abandon, while making derisive remarks about the advanced age of a retired Naval Captain. Take a look at the quality of SJSâ€™ â€œapprenticesâ€• to get my drift. They arenâ€™t hard to find. Maybe theyâ€™ll get a trip to the woodshed upon the â€œOld Manâ€™sâ€• returnâ€¦

In the meantime, SJS forwarded these picture via email, from a located business center where he was on the 14th of August, with the question: â€œNOW Whereâ€™s MEGEN?â€• The single text based hint is â€œit ainâ€™t in NoVAâ€¦ ;).â€•
I donâ€™t recognize much more than the machinery room, most likely in a basement, near a diesel generator. How about the rest of you? I can assume (and we all know what that means) itâ€™s related to something Naval in originâ€¦

Any guesses where MEGEN is?

The one visual hint sent along is this:

Leave any guesses in the comments. Maybe SJS will pop in after a bit and let us know whoâ€™s been where MEGEN has beenâ€¦and I sure hope he locked up the virtual beer tap before waving goodbye in the driveway.Update 08/18/2007:

It seems SJS continues to tell his best friend heâ€™s going out for ice, but then comes back with the mostly liquid version after visitng the business center of the temporary lodgingsâ€¦but he has informed us the SJBill is the one who figured out the location of the picture:

> SJBill | williamgschultz@sbcglobal.net | IP: 75.35.74.155
> Howabout up in Maine? Mebbe the FV Sherman Zwicker? The schooner was built in Nova Scotia back in the 40s.

BZ, SJBill, for the refined eye needed to figure it outâ€¦.

Hereâ€™s the â€œawardâ€• statement, with added context of the place where MEGEN was:

> Steeljaw Scribe | steeljawscribe@gmail.com | steeljawscribe.com | IP: 71.114.62.189
> Ã¢â‚¬Â¦and SJBill wins the ceegar! ðŸ™‚ The one and the same, built in Lunenburg at the same shipyard that built the famed (and my personal favorite) Bluenose and Bluenose II fishing schooner. The Zwicker is part of the exhibit at the Maine Maritime Museum and from which, you can see the latest Arleigh Burke DDG being built in drydock over at Bath Iron Works.

Note the time stampâ€¦I hate to think what heâ€™ll be using the ice for this early in the morningâ€¦maybe to awake the younger generation from their â€œthey need their sleepâ€• sleep.
