Entropy and Irony: At a Few Levels

Description

One one level, itâ€™s a cheap way for the Navy to horn in on the USAF contract for the purchase of the F-22 Raptor airframe.

At another level, it shows a disconnect between society and the understanding of our military.

Butâ€¦itsâ€™ sorta like being able to â€œzapâ€• an AF jet with the bad manners and planning to land on a Naval location, only weâ€™re imprinting the youth of America with the right model of the real aviators!
