Ropeyarn Sunday "Sea Stories" and Open Trackbacks

Description

Send â€™em if you got â€™emâ€¦trackbacks that is.

As far as â€œsea Stories,â€• Iâ€™m suffering from a little bit of bloggers block, soâ€¦.the best I feel in the mood for today is saying there is an update to the story of the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals elevating the â€œequality of lifeâ€• of marine mammals above that of the need for humans (of the US citizen persuasion) to protect ourselves.

Original â€œtipperâ€• here.

Todayâ€™s news, where the Prez tosses â€œtheâ€• flag on that play is here:

LA Times â€œBush sides with Navy in sonar battle.â€•

(make slapping your forehead motion for a fuller multimedia, distributed experience) and utter â€œDUH!â€•

Have fun reading the article and see how some people (Peter Douglas of the California Coastal Commission) thing this is something that shouldnâ€™t be done thinking a 1972 law gives states oversight and review rights on what the Federal Government does in their coastal areas.

Also check out what Joel Reynolds, a lawyer for the Natural Resources Defense Council thinks about this, too.

So much for citizens who understand â€œto provide for the common defense.â€•
