New â€œWorkâ€• and Posting

Description

Beginning a new adventure tomorrow AM. Not sure how much posting will get done for at least a few days, while I get the â€œsea legsâ€• in the new environs.

Butâ€¦for those who read this: If youâ€™re not registered at Little Green Footballs, Iâ€™d recommend you get over there and do so (Charles opens and closes the function to sign up periodically). Why? The â€œSpin Off Linkâ€• function that has shown up in the last few weeks. To any post, registered users can add a spin off link to the list. Doesnâ€™t have to relate, but it can.

The â€œvalue added?â€• When you see a great MilBlog or troop support story, or the real gouge from the front on a website, you can slap it up there for the world to peruse. I try to grab some â€œbest ofâ€• from my rounds and get them billing there. LGF is way past Capt Lexâ€™s million hits, to the exposure is most excellent.Ã, Come on, lets push the great stories out there!

More later. If the â€œregularly scheduledâ€• posts are missing, come back later. Work hours will be late AM to mid eveningâ€¦

Bonus tip: Drew Carey has his own libertarian leaning web site. Check out his â€œLiving Largeâ€• videos, where they go out to find the shrinking â€œmiddle classâ€• the news keeps reading the obits for.
