Sailors Belong on Ships andâ€¦

Description

ships belong at sea.

One of â€œour ownâ€• (a MilBlogger that is: LCDR Chris van Avery), heads out on an underway period as Executive Officer aboard USS RUSSELL (DDG-59). The Shipâ€™s blog will provide some just about real time details of life at sea. Favorite/bookmark Destroymen now and check the posts often.

So far, there are three authors identified for the blog, Chris, ET3 Kirkland and ENS Scheimer. That provides a cross section of the crew, but missing is representation by the backbone of the Navy, a member of the Goatâ€™s Locker. I bet there will be great sroties for all coming our way.
