A "Blogging General?"

Description

After all the fits and starts and threats and non-guidance for Army personnel blogging, finally, a 2 star steps up to the plate.

BZ, MG Oates, CG of Task Force Mountain:

> â€œThere are some concerns by some people, based on the nature of our hierarchical organization, who feel this is inappropriate â€" going around the chain of command,â€• Major General Michael Oates, the commander of the Armyâ€™s Task Force Mountain, tells Danger Room. â€œIt is not in fact going around the chain of command; it allows us to connect to the chain of command in ways we have not been able to experience before.â€•
