Description

For those without a Naval background, â€œBZâ€• is signal flag code for â€œWell Done.â€•

Itâ€™s been over for a few days, but the final totals, minus some that will trickle in via the mail for the VALOur-IT was:

$92,542!!

Amazing. The beginning goal was $60K. The Army sprinted out of the blocks and blew throught their $15K â€œfair shareâ€• and had to bump the goal to keep it easy to see. They pushed their meter to $25K, and then the Marines, outflaked them and everybody elseâ€¦..The Jarheads powered through the muck and went north of $30K to an amazed audience. Of course a nod from Michelle Malkin didnâ€™t hurt at all, now did it?

Thanks to one and all for spreading the word on this wonderful, life changing project, that puts wounded soldiers, sailors. airmen, Coast Guardsmen and Marines back into the world via technology.

See you next year, but, donations for this, and the many other projects of Soldierâ€™s Angels are gracefully accepted all year long.
