From the Desk of Col George Dodenhoff, USMC â€“ Part 5

Description

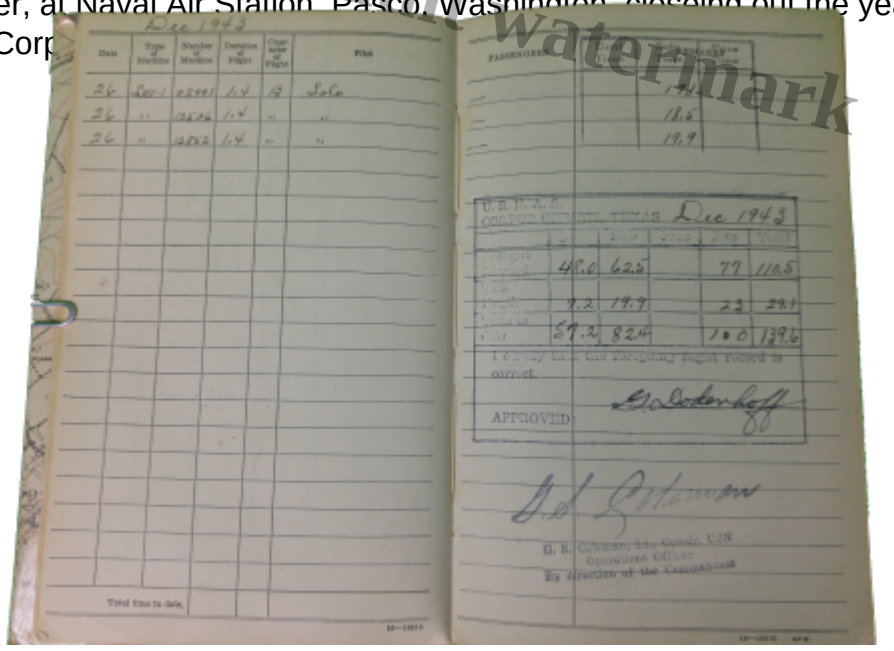

Col Dodenhoff â€“ Total Flight Hours 1943 Page â€“ 19431226-450w.png

Subtitle: Still in training in Dec 43

Col Dodenhoff had done plenty of flying in September and October of 43, but only had one flight in November, at Naval Air Station, Pasco, Washington, closeing out the year with 3 flights at Naval Air Station, Corp

default watermark

Click for a larger image

Just preceeding this time frame, the Marine Corps had just wrapped up the assault on Tarawa, one of the major battles of the Pacific, that defined the future of amphibious landing tactics and equipment.

Dode now has a total of 139.6 hours in the air, across 100 flights. Of that time, now 82.4 hours have been as a solo pilot, still in the standard basic primary trainer, the N2S-3.

Category

1. Col Dodenhoff
2. History

3. Marines
4. Military
5. Military History

Tags

1. corpus christi texas
2. solo flight
3. USMC aviation
4. wwii aviator training

Date Created
October 16, 2015
Author
admin

default watermark