

As Paris Burns and French Moral Cowardice

Description

On Little Green Footballs, once more the Muslims riot in the vicinity of Paris. The Interior Minister is clueless, as is the French President.

I found a link to the situation I recall hearing about about a year ago, where French Foreign Legionaries gunned down civilians in Cote d'Ivoire.

Anyhow, they can find someone to gun down in Africa, but somehow they can't figure out how to use the same rationale to do it in Paris. I guess they are afraid of the consequences when faced with an enemy with resolve.
